Auburn leads the all-time series 73-55 and is 49-12 at home.

BASKETBALL 101: VIOLATIONS AND FOULS

Violations – these include things such as traveling, backcourt violations, 3 seconds, and a few more. These are essentially things that are against the rules, but aren't necessarily against the other team. Violations just count as a turnover and the total violations are not kept up with during the game.

Fouls – these include blocking, charging, flagrant fouls, and illegal picks or screens. These can be in the act of shooting or not. If they are in the act of shooting, the shooting team is awarded 1-3 FTs depending on where they were fouled and if they made the shot. Fouls are kept up with by each team for each half. 7 fouls and the other team is in the bonus, where they shoot 1 FT followed by another if they make it. At 10 fouls or more, the opposing team is in the double bonus where they get 2 FT's regardless of the type of foul.

Heckling Help

Remember as you heckle, try to be creative and disruptive, but please refrain from foul language.*

#42 Stefan Moody – couldn't finish the game against Kentucky, because of cramps. Remind him that Tahj plays with two dislocated shoulders.

#32 Jarvis Summers – Arrested last summer for driving 48mpg in a 10mph zone without a license.

#10 Ladarius White – Nickname is Snoop and he has no clue why.

#11 Sebastian Saiz – Speaks Spanish and plays for Spain's U20 basketball team.

#4 M.J. Rhett – enjoys taking shirtless pictures with his teammates after games.

Coach Andy Kennedy – arrested for assaulting a taxi driver while calling him "bin Laden" and other racial slurs.

GENERAL CHEERS

Offense – Basically, follow the lead of the cheerleaders, pep band, and the student Jungle leaders. When the shot clock gets to 10, start counting down to help the team out.

Defense – Start with cheers like “Defense, defense!” or “D-up, D-up!” then when in doubt just make lots of noise. When the shot clock gets to 10, start counting down from 5 to mess up the other team.

SITUATIONAL CHEERS

Jungle Banner – After our team is introduced, and after the hype video, when the lights come back on, the Jungle Banner will go up and you should chant, “Fear the Jungle!” over and over. This should try to keep going until tip off.

Opposing player shoots an air ball – Shout “Airrr ball! Airrr ball!” at the player while pointing at him in a chopping motion. Continue to harass him like this every time they touch the ball.

Opposing player commits a foul – Shout “You can’t do that!” over and over again. Stop if our player is at the line for free throws.

Auburn is shooting free throws – Raise your arms before the shot, and on a made basket clap your hands twice and yell “A-U!” while making the shapes of the letters with your arms.

Opposing player fouls out – As the player walks to the bench, shout “Step! Step!” for every step. When he sits down, shout “Sit down!” DON’T shout if we’re shooting free throws so we don’t distract our own players.
